

COURSE DESCRIPTION

University: School of Economics and Management in Public Administration in Bratislava
Department: Economics and Finance
Code:	Course name: International economic relations
Type, extent and method of instruction: 2h lecture / weekly, face-to -face method
Number of credits: 4 ETCS
Study degree: master programme
Prerequisites: Macroeconomics, International Trade
Course completion conditions: Active participation in lectures; written assignment, presentation, and oral exam
Course aims: The graduate will expand their knowledge and build on knowledge of general economic theory and macroeconomics of the open economy in the field of international economic relations and their specific forms of implementation. Gain knowledge in the theoretical and practical level, the development from the classical theory of international trade to current theories of international economic relations and the issue of globalization.
Brief outline of the course: International economic relations. International movement of goods and services. International movement of production factors. International movement of money and capital. International capital movements. International business as a form of international economic relations. The role of international corporations in the world economy. International monetary relations - essence and function. International economic integration. Optimal monetary area theory. International macroeconomic policy. International organizations in today's world economy and developing countries. Globalization as an objective and multidimensional process.
Recommended literature: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• KRUGMAN, P. R. 2018. International Economics: Theory and Policy. 11. ed. Harlow: Pearson, ISBN 978-1-292-21487-0.</li> <li>• FEENSTRA, R. C. – TAYLOR, A. M. 2014. International Economics. Palgrave Macmillan. 3rd edition. 2014. ISBN 978-1-429-27842-3 s.1056</li> <li>• DUNNING, J.H. 2008. Multinational enterprises and the global economy. Cheltenham, England; Northampton, Massachusetts: Edward Elgar Publishing, 2008.</li> </ul>
Language of instruction: English
Notes:	